

We are absolutely opposed to displacement of translator services by LPFM services. We listen to 91.1 in Fresno and others when traveling. The hopeless in our communities can call the number given on the air and get help. These stations support wholesome values and has a positive and encouraging impact on the public all across America.